

APS Leaders Institute

Supporting APS and Adult Services
Leaders: The California Landscape

Being an APS or Adult Services leader in California is very complex. APS and Adult Services leaders interact with numerous county, regional, state and federal departments, agencies and committees. CDSS, CWDA, PSOC, Adults, 20 Smalls and more...and there are so many acronyms! What do they mean? What do these groups all do? How do they intersect? And how do they support you and your program?

Whether you are a new leader or have many years of experience to share, you'll learn something new at this engaging APS Leaders Institute workshop. You will have the opportunity to connect with colleagues from across the state to form partnerships and collaborations. Come be inspired by speakers, colleagues and resources near and far.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this workshop participants will be able to:

- Identify the California department, association and committees that interact and connect with APS and Adult Services programs
- Describe the role of these organizations
- Connect with colleagues
- Identify and prioritize local, state and national resources to advance leadership and learning
